"Fair star of Caroline our alma mater
Our college best of all in this broad land
Thou best beloved of every son and every daughter Thy children hail thy name on every hand."
"Fling wide the red and black
Oh sing aloud her praises
This is the song we sing
Lenoir Rhyne to thee."

FOREWORD

In this land of learning our ambitions were boundless!

Within this book we hope to have made a mirror in which to catch and hold a faint, yet real, reflection of the laughter, the tears, and the hopes of this eventful year. It has been a solemn obligation to record, as vividly as shutters would allow, life within these halls, campus, and walls.

It has been our privilege to carry the banner of Lenoir Rhyne proudly before us until now we must relinquish it. Our life here has been a song sung with love and enthusiasm, fighting pride and soaring hope. Therefore, this is your year!

Through these pages may you see your shadow, discover your world, honor your memories in . . .

Dedication

Because of your patience, understanding, and cooperation,
Because of your honest respect for, and genuine interest in all individuals,
Because of your immeasurable contributions to our campus,
Because of the high ideals for which you stand,
And because you are such a vital part of our school life,
The 1962 HACAWA is dedicated to you

MRS. JANE MONROE
Head of the Department of Nursing

With the addition of the Nursing Division to the academic offerings at Lenoir Rhyne, educational opportunities for young women interested in becoming professional nurses are provided. A program is offered which will lead to the Bachelor of Science Degree and covers two calendar and academic years at Lenoir Rhyne and two academic years at Grace Hospital in Morganton, North Carolina.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jane Monroe, the Nursing classes are looking forward to improved and expanded facilities.

Floyd, of the two, whom have you come to see?

No, I teach watchdog one and two and barking six!

Men with great ambitions!

By his way of life, you may know the man!

*Dean Bret's secretary, Kay
Bowman, is rather popular during examination week.*

*The faithful few attend
another open house.*

*To draw such a crowd
Zorro must have struck again.*

SENIORS

Judy Cooper and Betty Ann Hackmann take orders for cap and gown and invitations for seniors.

"The curtain is about to fall
To end our college days.
We cannot put our thoughts in words,
But they are full of praise.
Diamond rings and wedding plans
Cars and jobs and tears—
Seniors, it has finally come,
Graduation's Here!"

STUDENT CABINET

These twenty-four Lenoir Rhyne persons—four student body officers, four representatives from each of the four academic classes, one representative from the one-year commercial class, and three ex-officio members—make up the highest legislative body in our Student Government.

These students are primarily concerned with the welfare of their fellow students in both academic and co-curricular activities; promoting leadership and leadership training; conducting all our campus elections; seeing that all violations of our campus code of conduct are dealt with in Christian love.

Each Tuesday night finds the Cabinet spending long hours discussing problems of the campus and seeking means of improving the life of the Lenoir Rhyne student. Dedicated students in this most vital role account for the continued success of Student Government.

Having come into existence in the academic year 1961-1962, Student Commission is the youngest unit of student government.

In its efforts to give a unique and deep-rooted contribution to the student body, the Commission encourages individual suggestions, looks for problem areas, experiments with new ideas and recommends major and minor changes. Its constant aim is to help all student organizations to keep objectives and standards high and contributions at a maximum.

BILL BOND
President—Men's House Council

The House Councils are only a branch of Student Government, but such an important one they are. School spirit, in the truest sense of the phrase, is developed in the dorms where the students learn to live with each other according to standards they set for themselves. Through the house council members, who are students, the actual governing of the dorm is carried on.

Each House Council in each of the five dormitories exists as a vital part of Student Government. Members were elected to positions of responsibility by their fellow students and were entrusted with the important task of maintaining a standard of citizenship and promoting a friendly and helpful atmosphere.

STUDENT COURT

To hear and to try any student charged with any of the major Constitutional violations—dishonesty, gambling, vandalism, or intoxication—is the duty of the Student Court. The court is made up of the President and the Vice-President of the Student Body, plus a representative from each class, as appointed by action of Student Cabinet. The court can declare a trial open or closed to attendance. This year the decisions of the Student Court have favorably demonstrated the deep sense of responsibility and loyalty that the Lenoir Rhyne community feels toward her Constitution.

BUDGET BOARD

The Budget Board must approve all money-making projects proposed and undertaken by any campus organization. The Treasurer of the Student Body is chairman of the Budget Board, and the remaining members are appointed by Student Cabinet.

CAMPUS GUIDE PROGRAM

Early in the spring of '61 thirty-five students were selected to serve as campus guides to incoming freshmen. Applications were reviewed and the final selection made by the Co-directors of the orientation program and the Dean of Students. Several orientation sessions were held with the guides before they went home. During the summer approximately twenty-five freshmen were placed in a campus guide group. The freshmen and guides corresponded before the opening of school.

New Student Daze week saw the guides in action—leading campus tours, answering questions about anything and everything, selling badges, monitoring tests, explaining registration, calling roll, and herding their groups here and there. Then for a period of six weeks the guides were with their groups during freshman orientation.

Under the skillful direction of Professor Kenneth B. Lee, the Lenoir Rhyne's A Cappella Choir is one of the best-loved college activities. Now in its twenty-seventh year, the nationally known choir is noted for its musical ability and interpretation of the best-known sacred works. Long months of diligent practice are climaxed by the annual Christmas concert, Sunday tours, and the week long tour in April. This year the tour included the states of North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. Certainly echoes of the A Cappella Choir will ring long in the hearts of the students and their alma mater.

HACAWA DEDICATED TO

From a mass of photographs and stacks of copy, The 1962 HACAWA comes to you without the familiar words and cries that have become synonymous with production. Overcoming major difficulties only to be stopped by minute ones, the editor and staff have endeavored to portray your year at Lenoir Rhyne.

"What makes up a year at Lenoir Rhyne?" was the question asked by the editors of various sections. Deciding that the work of each administrator, faculty member, and student, along with the activities of each class, organization, fraternity and sorority are vital in the portrayal of the Lenoir Rhyne year the staff set about to depict this year.

Several changes have occurred in this year's book with the addition of The College Family, Nursing, and Introductory sections. While the staff attempted to make the HACAWA more attractive and significant in its portrayal, several sections were cut.

Trying to produce an annual of which each Lenoir Rhyne student would be proud, the editor and staff have worked many hours to complete this edition. After overcoming all difficulties and problems, and with the help of all, presentation was made to you, the students, at the close of your year at Lenoir Rhyne.

NEWS PUBLISHED IN LENOIR RHYNEAN

1961-62 has been a year of innovations for the Lenoir Rhynean. The idea of a co-editorship was put into practice for the first time—so far as research can show. The “co-editor plan” worked fairly well, but there was still a need for organizational improvement.

A campaign for more effective participation was begun by an editorial in the Lenoir Rhynean—and happily brought results! Plans are underway to revise journalism instruction to cover two semesters and to provide a workshop which would involve work on the newspaper.

The Lenoir Rhynean took part in reorganization on a higher level, with the formation and revival of the Carolina's Collegiate Press Association. A new constitution was formed, and Lenoir Rhynean delegates to a convention at Pfeiffer College helped pass it. As a culmination for the year, the Lenoir Rhynean hosted the spring convention for the conference in April.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Student Publications Committee includes representatives from both students and faculty. This committee is responsible for the general activities of campus publications, for the discovery of the need for additional campus publications, and for the nomination of candidates for editor and business manager of all student publications.

PRESIDENTS' COMMISSION

The Presidents' Commission was created this year for the purpose of providing a "sounding board" for the problems of presidents of all campus organizations. The Presidents' Commission is striving to improve community effort on our campus. The Commission meets each month and provides each president the opportunity to communicate directly to the President of the Student Body and to fellow presidents any problems which he sees existing within his organization or on campus. The Commission offers varied, respected opinions on all subjects and, therefore, gives the Cabinet the "true picture" of campus opinion.

The Commission also allows each president to discuss any problems within his group with fellow presidents who may suggest solutions, and it allows the organizations to be more aware of the needs of our campus as we move forward as a unified student body!

Diedrich Oglesbee makes his point clear. Hoping for another win, Luther pounds for emphasis.

The careful debator always takes note of the remaining time.

LENOIR RHYNE DEBATORS COMING UP

Coach Bud Brown points out the strengths and weaknesses of their debate to the debators.

Under the dual coach-ship of Dr. Betty Spence and Professor Bud Brown, the debating team has its eyes set upon high goals as the year marches on. Handicapped by the lack of experience, the debators are snowballing as they blast through each contest as "Mr. Experience" coaches them toward future victories. Held together and fired by the traditional "Bear" winning spirit, the debators' tactics are aimed to score a bull's eye in the year's-end forensic tournament here at Lenoir Rhyne. We can only wait and see, but it is for certain that the talents of the debators will bring once again a winning name to Lenoir Rhyne.

"What do you think of that?"

Playmakers' performance of "The Lark."

PLAYMAKERS

The house lights dim . . . the curtain goes up . . . the play begins! From this point until the final curtain call, the many weeks of hard work are made worthwhile. Evidence of this has been seen in this year's productions of The Rainmaker, The Lark, Antigone, The Tender Trap, and the musical production presented in co-operation with the Junior Class and the Music Department.

The return of Mr. George Spence as director, the addition of Mr. Richard Zimmerman as technical director, and the continued assistance of Mrs. Charles Jeffers as advisor have greatly aided the Playmakers in their efforts.

More and better productions, an enlarged Drama Department, increased participation and interest on the part of students and faculty as well . . . all these factors prove that the growing Playmakers are keeping pace with a growing Lenoir Rhyne.

Prompter Linda Goforih follows carefully the script.

Jon Birkeli and Bob Shelby rehearse for "Dial 'M' for Murder."

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The Religious Council is a coordinated group of representatives from all the religious organizations on campus. The Council strives to strengthen and instill within the college family a Christian fellowship and growth. Each year the Council, through united effort of all the representatives, sponsors the Faith and Life Series, the Campus Chest—which enables the college family to give to worthy charity organizations—Student Services in the College Church throughout the year, and other visitors and events of a religious interest and nature.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is under the auspices of the national Y.W.C.A. Its purpose is to promote Christian experiences on campus.

The annual Little Sister-Big Sister program is sponsored by the "Y" to welcome incoming freshman women. Other activities include providing food for a needy family and being co-sponsors with Diakonia Fellowship for the campus Christmas caroling.

The Westminster Fellowship renders a distinctive service to Presbyterian students. This denominational organization provides inspiration and fellowship through a spiritual climate essential for Christian growth while in college.

Service to fellow students, to Lenoir Rhyne, to the community and to the Christian church are the objectives of Diakonia. This organization provides spiritual enrichment for those full-time religious vocations. This group of men serves as student hosts for Wednesday chapel services, conducts weekly dorm devotions, and helps the Y.W.C.A. sponsor Christmas caroling.

DIAKONIA FELLOWSHIP

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The Methodist Student Movement seeks to help Methodist students deepen their Christian faith and to foster fellowship. In bi-monthly meetings a spiritual atmosphere essential for Christian growth is provided.

First row: Nix, Shuford, Honeycutt. Second row: Hickman, Peterson.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

L.S.A. is a national association of interested Lutheran and other college students. Each Sunday evening students participate in study, recreation, discussion, and programs revolving around their faith and daily Christian life as a student. The association strives to maintain for students on the college campus a fellowship and also a witnessing body for Jesus Christ. The Local L.S.A. is affiliated with district, area, and national Lutheran groups.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

ASSOCIATION OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The aims of the Association of Childhood Education are to work for the education and well-being of children, to promote desirable conditions, programs, and practices in the schools, to raise the standard of preparation and to encourage continued professional growth of teachers and leaders in this field, and to inform the public of the needs of children and how the school program must be adjusted to fit those needs.

A tea was sponsored in the fall for the freshmen and another in the spring for practice teachers and their supervising teachers.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

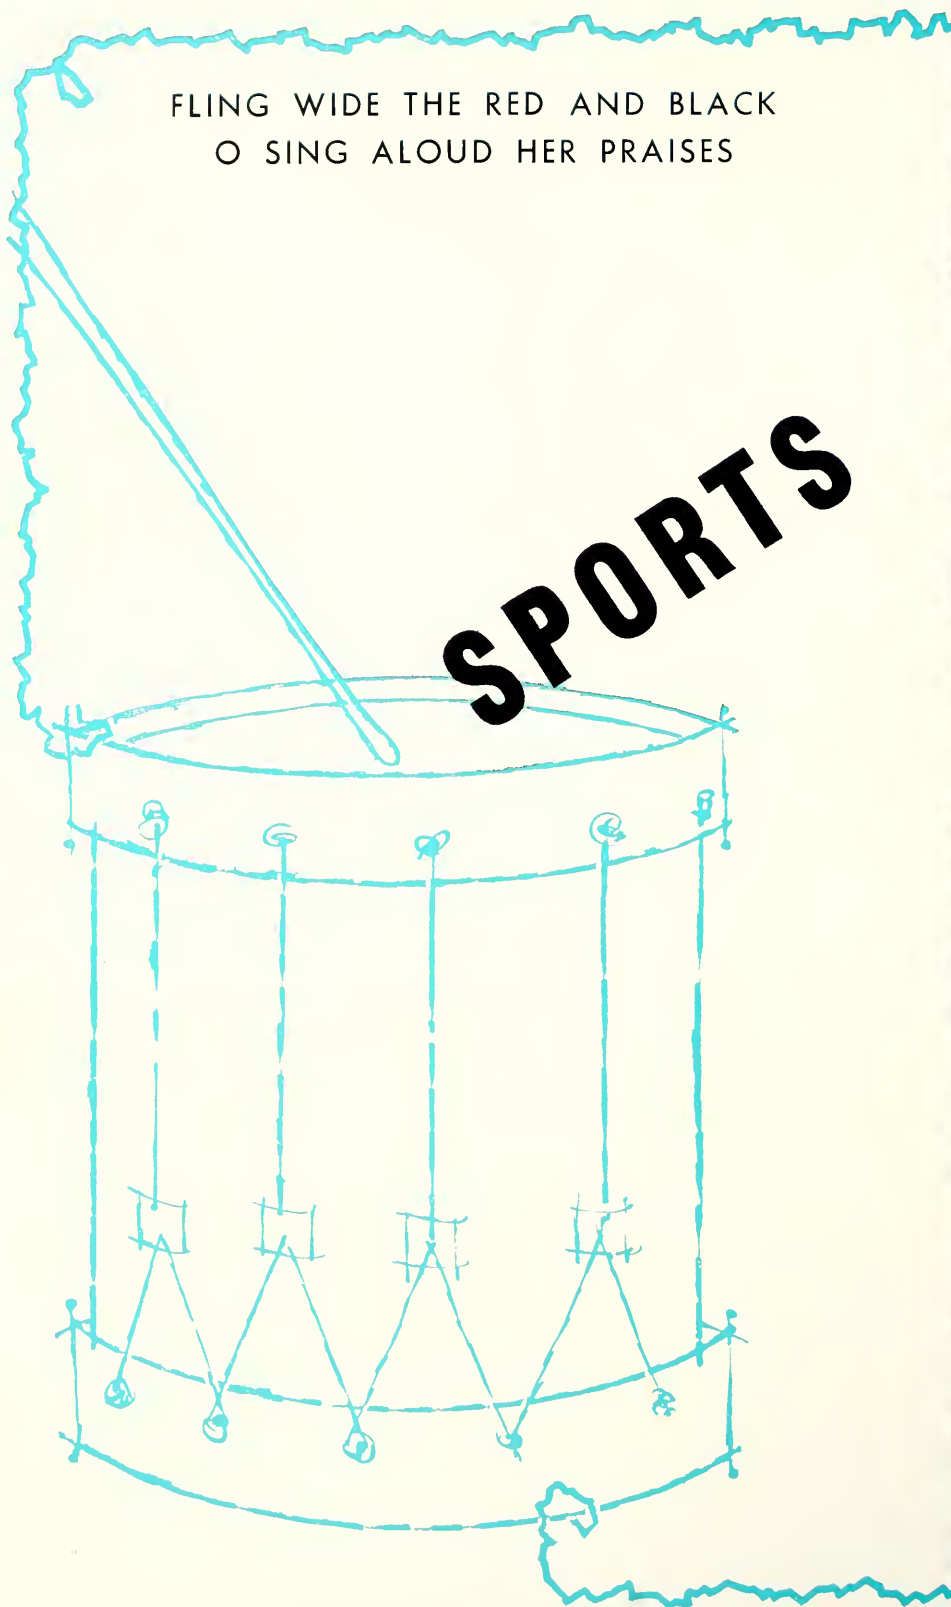

To encourage future teachers to become familiar with the teaching profession, professional advice for teaching problems, aid in finding a teaching position, and to learn of the history and ethics of the teaching profession are the purposes of the Future Teachers of America.

Football is always a game of struggles—against the August heat, September rain, cold winter days, and opponents—but they make the football team determined for victory. And because of these struggles, student opinion and support are tremendous hurdles, requiring overwhelming jumps by any team in sports.

The most spectacular win and loss for the Bears was in its staff. Head Coach and Athletic Director Clarence Stasavich resigned his position at Lenoir Rhyne after sixteen years of service to assume a head coaching position at East Carolina College. Among his accomplishments and superb record of coaching are Lenoir Rhyne's holding the national small college championship last year as well as having won his seventh consecutive championship.

Coach Hanley Painter, an equally qualified coach, was appointed to succeed Stasavich. There is much speculation that the talent and able leadership of Coach Painter will lead the Bears to continual wins.

GAMES TO REMEMBER

LENOIR RHYNE 35 GUILFORD 6

Lenoir Rhyne celebrated its 1961 Homecoming with a 35-6 victory over the Guilford Quakers.

The Bears who had trouble finding their swift single wing offense were leading by a slim 15-6 margin in the fourth period after Guilford's Larry Addleton scored for the Quakers.

The Guilford score apparently injected life into the Bears. After that the Bruins scored three rapid touchdowns and Guilford was helpless.

For his outstanding line play, tackle Ed Haupt was named Bear-of-the-Week. Haupt set up one Lenoir Rhyne score by recovering a Quaker fumble on the Quaker 12-yard line.

The victory pushed Lenoir Rhyne's record to three wins, one tie, and one defeat.

Benny Kennerly and Don Smith make tackle in the 35-6 victory over Guilford.

LENOIR RHYNE 28 PRESBYTERIAN 8

Lenoir Rhyne bounced back from the Wofford tie and defeated powerful Presbyterian College 28-8. Four backs got into the scoring column for the Bears as Marcus Midgett scored the game's initial T.D. on a 10-yard run. Richard Kemp scored a quarter later and Lenoir Rhyne led at half time 14-0.

The vicious L. R. line play led by Bear-of-the-Week Ron Hardman held the P. C. team to a total of 44 yards rushing. The Blue Hose got their T.D. on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Bobby Joines to Larry Madden.

Senior tailback Tony McClamrock figured in both of the final Lenoir Rhyne T.D.'s. One was a 16-yard pass to Odell White and the last L. R. T.D. was on a run by McClamrock.

Linebacker Don Smith breaks up Presbyterian pass.

LENOIR RHYNE 14 WOFFORD 14

Lenoir Rhyne opened its 1961 football season with somewhat of a sad note as the Bears were tied by the underdog, Wofford Terriers, 14-14.

After falling behind 6-0 in the first quarter, the Bruins stormed back to take a 14-6 half-time lead. The first Lenoir Rhyne T.D. came on an 85-yard run by wingback Joe Rhyne, who intercepted a pass thrown by Wofford quarterback Tom Ellis. Fullback Richard Kemp carried the ball into the end zone and Marion Kirby kicked the P.A.T. as Lenoir Rhyne went out in front 14-6.

However, in the second half Terrier quarterback Ellis hit end Benny Brannon on a 52-yard pass and halfback Todd Halbreth ran the P.A.T. good enough for a 14-14 tie.

Tom Brown passes to Lee Kanipe.

LENOIR RHYNE 19 APPALACHIAN 6

The Bears got back into the winning column as they defeated Appalachian 19-6. The Apps went into the game undefeated and were looking for their first win over Lenoir Rhyne since 1956.

Marcus Midgett led the Bruins to victory as he scored two touchdowns on runs of thirteen and nine yards. He also set up the other Lenoir Rhyne touchdown when intercepting Appalachian quarterback Gene Styles' pass on the L. R. 45 and returned the ball to the Appalachian 26. Five plays later fullback Richard Kemp crashed over from the one-yard line for the score.

Appalachian's T.D. came on a 10-yard pass play from Styles to Hightower. Midgett was later named Bear-of-the-Week for outstanding running and defensive playing.

Lenoir Rhyne could not hold a 14-0 lead, and Newberry stormed back to defeat the conference champions 18-14. The Bears carried their lead into the third quarter as Odell White had scored one touchdown and threw for another one on an eleven yard pass to end Dick Angel. Marion Kirby followed with both P.A.T.'s.

The fired-up Indians, sparked by quarterback Tom Gorman, used a pair of touchdown runs and a scoring pass by Gorman to overcome L. R.'s lead and end the Bears' monopoly on the conference. The defeat by Newberry was the first Lenoir Rhyne conference defeat since Elon's victory in 1957.

Tony McClamrock is smothered by Newberry line.

Odell White stops Appalachian pass.

LENOIR RHYNE 34

WITTENBERG 14

Wittenberg, trailing 20-6, was forced into a passing situation but disaster befell them as they had two interceptions in the last five minutes and Lenoir Rhyne walked away with a 34-14 win.

With Wittenberg deep in their own territory Tom Brown intercepted a Gary Tranquill pass on the Wittenberg 27 and ran over for a touchdown.

Up to that point Richard Kemp had been the difference as he scored the first three Lenoir Rhyne touchdowns on runs of 9, 4, and 64 yards. The final Bear T.D. was on a 36-yard run by Odell White, who had intercepted another Tranquill pass.

Once again Ronald Hardman was named Bear-of-the-Week.

Marcus Midgett catches a Brown aerial in Wittenberg territory.

Joe Rhyne throws Newberry quarterback for a short loss in route to an 18-14 defeat.

CHEERLEADERS AND MAJORETTES

Embodying the spirit of Lenoir Rhyne, the Cheerleaders and Majorettes lead the ever-present audiences at Lenoir Rhyne sports functions. Beginning with the first pre-game football rally, both the Cheerleaders and the Majorettes applaud and cheer the Bears to victory. Both "spirit inciters," as a group, always accompanied the football team to out-of-town games, as well as being present for all home sports.

BASKETBALL

The 1961-62 basketball season started with a 93-69 victory over Guilford and ended with a 91-77 defeat at the hands of the High Point Panthers in the opening game of the conference tournament at Lexington.

It was a good season but not as good as expected. As Coach Bill Wells stated, "We lost to some teams that we should have beaten." This statement pretty well summed up the nine defeats the Bears suffered during the season. They lost to the A.C.C. team, South Carolina, by a mere ten points, 82-72, and to other teams such as Western Carolina, tournament winners at Lexington, Belmont Abbey—District 26 finalist, two defeats by High Point, and single defeats by Wofford, East Carolina, Erskine, in the Spindale tournament, and Appalachian.

But on the other side of the ledger, the Mountain Bears defeated all of these teams except South Carolina, who played the Bears one game which was played at Shuford Gym.

As far as personnel was concerned, the Bears were as strong as they had been in any of the past three seasons. In center Jerry Wells the Bruins had the best pivot man in the conference. His consistency throughout the season was one of the Bears' strongest assets. Wells was named to the all-conference team for the second year in a row. The other big man was George Dehan. He started off slow but finished the season strong, both as a rebounder and as a consistent scorer. Guards Tommy Burton and Eddie Holbrooke played the kind of basketball that kept the fans roaring with approval. Burton also made the all-conference team for the second year in a row and the Bear fans will always remember how Holbrooke could manage to steal the basketball from opposing players.

That leaves only Jim Wiles, the other starting forward. Coach Bill Wells said, "We need Wiles to win," and when Jim got sick at the end of the season the Bears took a nosedive. Of course, Coach Wells had words of praise for all of the Bears, but he felt like Wiles' health hurt the Bears to a great extent.

The bench was stronger than it had been in past years. Chuck Fearn, who had started the previous season, gave the Bears strong rebounding; Jim Ehlers filled in for Jim Wiles and did a good job. Macy Foster, Don Schley and Neil McGeahy gave the Bears added bench strength.

In winning 17 games, the Bears won 9 in a row and that winning streak ended the same way the season did with a defeat by High Point. The Bears had started on that streak by defeating Wofford 89-58 in the Spindale tournament and breezed along until High Point stopped them 71-69, and that started a nosedive that saw the Bears lose three in a row. But in spite of those defeats they remained on top in the Carolina's Conference standings.

So all in all it was an exciting season as basketball always is and as Coach Wells said, "Some teams would have been overjoyed with our 17-9 record. We were not particularly elated over the outcome even though we won the regular season championship. We were very weak on rebounding and as a result had to have an exceptional night shooting to beat the better clubs in our league. I offer no apology for the season. It was one of heartbreak and close losses which requires excellent character to combat. Our young men conducted themselves befitting our organization and institution in the highest manner. In conclusion, they are champions to me and to all folk who played, worked, followed, and yelled for the 1961-62 edition of the Bears."

LENOIR RHYNE 85 APPALACHIAN 75

Jerry Wells broke loose with his biggest scoring total of the young season as he scored 33 points to lead Lenoir Rhyne to an 85-75 victory over arch-rival A.S.T.C.

The Bears took an early lead and never relinquished that margin. Even though the game was close at times, Coach Wells went to the bench throughout the game.

In addition to Wells, Tommy Burton also played well. He finished the night with 14 points. Jim Wiles and George Dehan, also, hit in the double figures with 12-point performance for each.

The high point man for the Apps was Duncan. The victory ran the Bears Season's record to 8 wins and 4 defeats.

LENOIR RHYNE 69 GUILFORD 60

The Bears had a tough time, but they finally overcame stubborn Guilford 69-60. The Quakers had come into the game as heavy underdog, but they were able to stay close to the Bears throughout the game.

At this point of the season the Bears are breezing along with an eight-game winning streak, including the victory over Guilford. The victory ran the Bears' seasonal record to 12 victories and 4 defeats and top position in the conference standings.

High point men for the Bears were Jim Wiles with 21 points, Eddie Holbrooke who had 15 points, and Jerry Wells and Tommy Burton with 12 points each.

SOUTH CAROLINA 82 LENOIR RHYNE 72

Lenoir Rhyne finally got a crack at an Atlantic Coast Conference team, but the evening ended on a sad note as the Bears lost to South Carolina 82-72.

The Bruins played well against the Gamecocks but in the early minutes of the game the South Carolina speed overwhelmed the L. R. defense. Defense and poor shooting accounted for the Bears being behind early in the ballgame; however, they fought back to take a 40-36 half-time lead.

It was not until late in the second half that the Gamecocks came back to tie L. R., and then they went on to give the Bears their first defeat of the season.

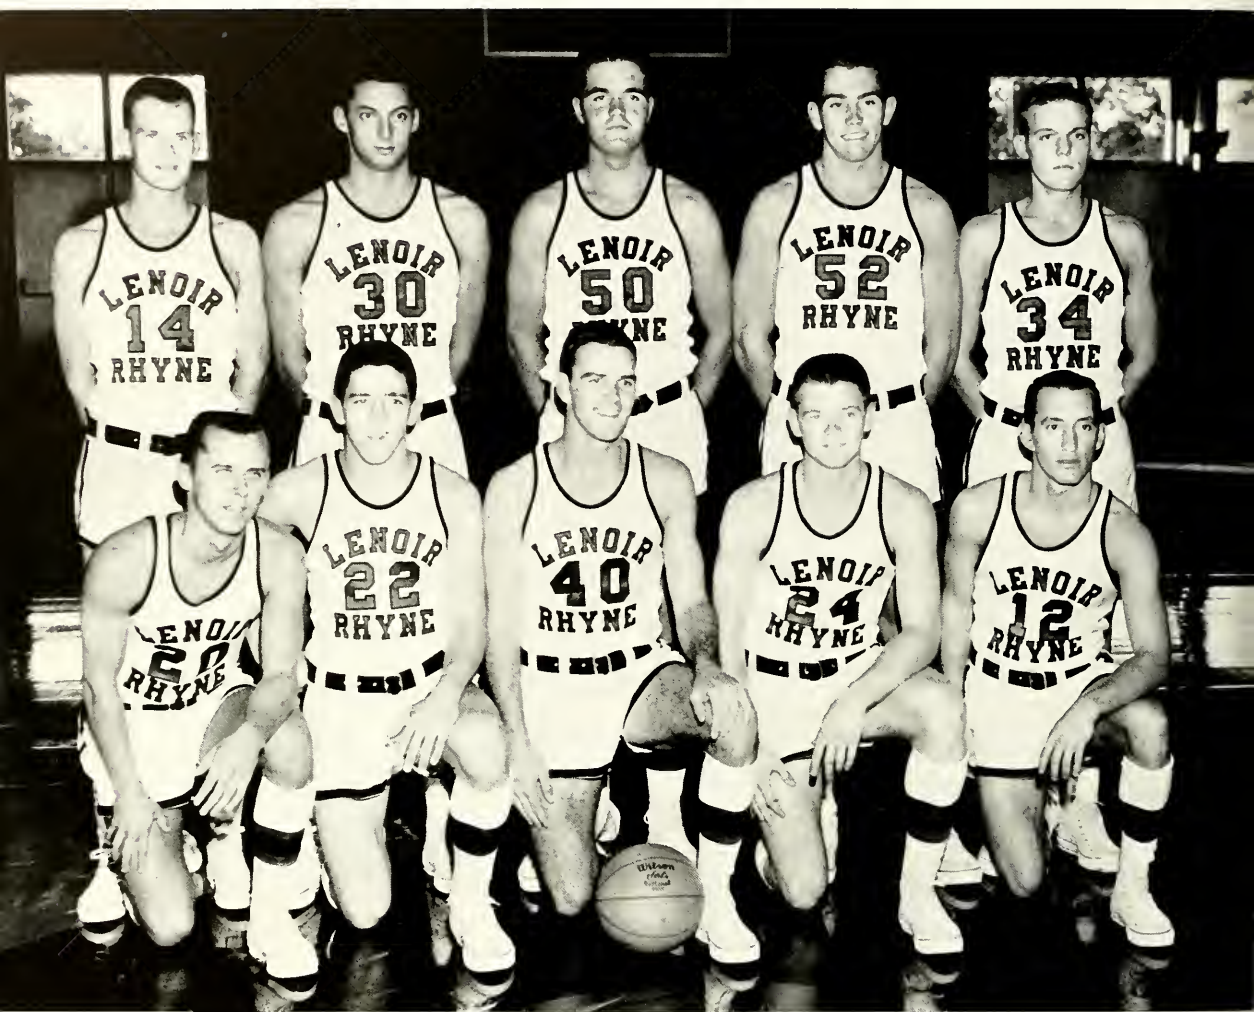

Leading scorers for the Bears were Jim Wiles with 19 points, Tommy Burton with 15 points, George Dehan with 14 points, and Jerry Wells had 13 points. High point man for South Carolina was Art Whisnant with 26 points.

LENOIR RHYNE 77 BELMONT ABBEY 66

The Bears walked away from Charlotte's Park Center with a sweet 77-66 victory over Belmont Abbey. The Crusaders had previously defeated L. R. at Hickory by the score of 65-62.

The game in Charlotte was one of the roughest ones local fans had seen in a long time. Abbey tried fouling L. R.'s guards so the Bears would not have a chance to set-up a play or use much time. However, this failed and at one point Don Schley dropped in four-out-of-four from the foul-line. After this the Abbey team never had the determination to fight back.

High man for L. R. was Jim Wiles with 20 points. He was followed closely by Jerry Wells who had 18 points. Tommy Burton finished the night with 12 points.

First row: Holbrook, McGeachy, Burton, Ehlers, Schley. Second row: Wiles, Fern, Deeham, Wells, Foster.

First Baseman Bob Watson watches closely for the ball.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

When you chose Lenoir Rhyne and Lenoir Rhyne chose you, a relationship was established which does not cease when college days end. Here we are united by the bonds of common aspiration, purpose, endeavor and achievement. The college nurtures and guides each student toward attaining the full potential of God-given faculties and capacities. Those who have felt and responded to this maternal solicitude for their intellectual, social and spiritual development appropriately hail their college as Alma Mater (fostering mother).

The ties of genuine devotion to college and of true fraternity with one another, formed on campus, are not severed at graduation but abide through the years. Now and henceforth you belong to the Lenoir Rhyne family, a lasting union in which you and your college will mutually benefit from the strength, the service and the achievements of each other. May the pages of this volume recall precious memories to keep us grateful that our paths met here and to perpetuate our partnership in the pursuit of the highest ideals.

The administration and faculty guided us, prepared us, showed us new horizons. Most of them we liked—great knowledge—thoughts on Truth, Justice, Life—we wanted to know them beyond the lectures and the classroom lexicon—"I give no make-up examinations"—"You may cut this class at your own risk"—we talked to them after class about studying in Europe—about med school—asked them to criticize our copied short stories, to hear our new idea. We argued with them, lost our point and gained knowledge, gained insight—brilliant minds full of new thoughts—complex formulae on the board—sentence in the original Greek called up from memory—discussion on Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath—independent, individualistic, non-conforming, underpaid—showing interest—giving the benefit of the doubt when there is little doubt—why?—they are dedicated.

A T R I B U T E

The passing of Dr. Robert Lindsay Fritz, former President and Professor of Lenoir Rhyne College, brought sadness to those of the Hickory community and the college family.

Commonly referred to as the "fifth founder" of this institution, Dr. Fritz gave 56 years of his life in service to Lenoir Rhyne. He was one of the original teachers when Lenoir Rhyne was founded in 1891.

Dr. Fritz will always be remembered for his unselfish and devoted love of our college and more especially for those contributions he made which aided in stimulating its growth.

We pay tribute to the beloved and colorful life of a man who heard God's call and answered it.

MU SIGMA EPSILON

Ideally a college is a community of scholars working together to achieve the highest physical, moral, spiritual, and intellectual development of each individual within the community. There must be leaders in any group and these leaders are those who achieve more than their fellows, either because of superior natural endowment or because of greater dedication and effort.

It is the purpose of Mu Sigma Epsilon to search out and recognize those who, at Lenoir Rhyne, most fully exemplify the aims of scholarship and thereby do most to make the institution a college in the ideal sense.

THETA CHI

"Alma Mater first; Theta Chi for Alma Mater."

This is the motto of the Brothers of Delta Chi Chapter of Theta Chi Fraternity. Our good is to find the ideals of Brotherhood through participation in college and fraternal activities.

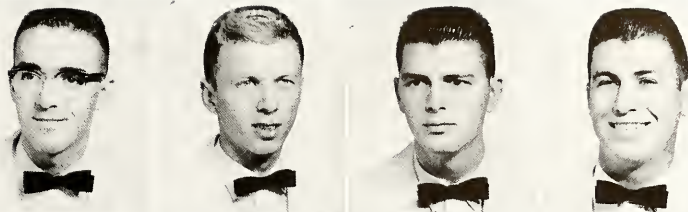

Theta Chi men believe that their constant aim should be to do all that they are able, collectively and individually, to strengthen the moral and social development of their fellow Brothers and themselves.

The Brothers were pleased to receive for the third consecutive year the Dean of Students' highest fraternity average award.

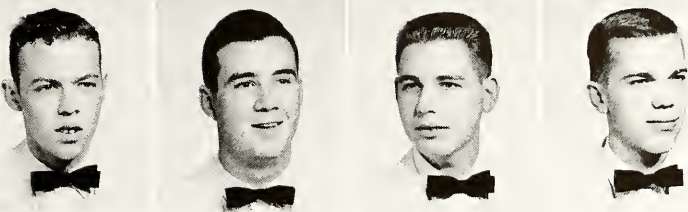

Impressionable moments . . . Theta Chi Sweetheart, Miss Tyna Coggins . . . serenades throughout the year . . . dinners at Mull's with various faculty members . . . Mrs. Sox's delicious meal in the Student Center . . . attending sorority teas . . . the "Fabulous Tams" . . . outings (mixed and stag) . . . the apartment . . . pledging . . . initiation . . . paper cutters to make money . . . annual cover sale . . . spring banquet at Moose Club . . . all memories of a Theta Chi year to remember.

Brothers Thomas, Koontz, and Coffey enlighten one another with their conversation.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Zeta Tau Alpha's Homecoming float entry.

A year that is ours to last in memories . . . the excitement of meeting the Freshmen at Sip 'n Chat . . . welcoming Miss Helen Stahler and Miss Linda Garrison as our advisors . . . the closeness expressed in our new sorority song . . . the exchancement of rambourine dancers in a Gypsy Camp . . . supporting the Bears with our Homecoming Float, "Rowing the Twenties to Victory" . . . receiving nine wonderful pledges . . . selling candy . . . sharing our joy of Christmas with a needy family . . . an informal tea given by Miss Stahler . . . the Christmas Party . . . petitioning and pledging Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity . . . the thrill of being serenaded . . . looking forward to final initiation, the Presentation Ball, and May Day . . . but most of all, the warmth and companionship of close friends . . . all of which will wind up a great year of ZTA.

Pledges of Zeta Tau Alpha anticipate sisterhood.

SIGMA KAPPA

This is the unforgettable year when dreams came true for Sigma Sisters. Our new advisor is Mrs. Stedmon Council, a Sigma Kappa from Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia. We shall always remember announcing our affiliation with Sigma Kappa National Sorority and being serenaded by Delta Zeta Sorority. Never shall we forget visiting with the Sigma Kappas at Western Carolina College and then being pledged by them. It was a dream come true to be wearing our Sigma Kappa paddles and our beautiful new pledge pins.

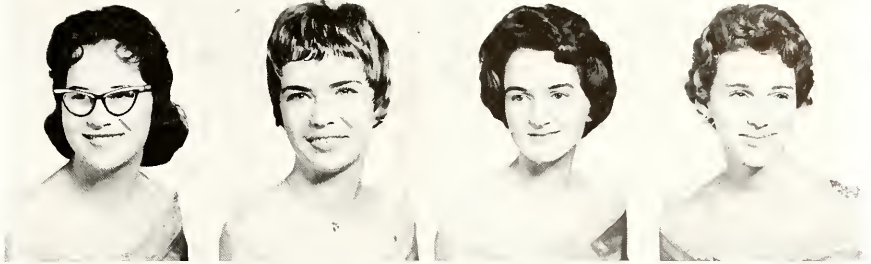

We have many outstanding members in our sorority. Judy Cooper and Judy Yoder were elected to Who's Who. Judy Cooper was selected as President of the Future Teachers of America. Donna George was selected as a majorette. Linda Weant was elected Vice-President of ISC. Connie Rudisill was elected Secretary-Treasurer of ISC.

Homecoming float prided by Sigma Kappa sisters.

During the year, we pledged seventeen new girls, ate pizza while listening to the wonderful music of Shorty Walker during rush parties, sold Lenoir Rhyne sweatshirts and cushions, participated in intramurals, enjoyed the Christmas party with the new pledges, took gifts to a needy family, presented a Talent Show with Delta Zeta, serenaded Zeta Tau Alpha, presented our new pledges at the Presentation Ball, planned a wonderful May Day, became a member of National Panhellenic, and entered a beautiful Homecoming float "Crown of Victory." Our great year of dreams was climaxed by the election of new officers and a fabulous outing to Ocean Drive Beach.
